Find appellate briefs, Attorney General Opinions, Judicial Council history, Wisconsin Jury Instructions, and archived Administrative Code.

Use a collection that supports your practice. Access current and historical primary law and treatises from sources you can trust.

Start your research here. Librarians are legal research experts. We'll work with you to identify what you need and get it to you fast.

Learn at your convenience. Attend monthly CLE classes and webinars. Many are offered for free. Suggest a class you need.

Get copies emailed. We can send what you can't find online: jury instructions, Shepard's/Keycite, briefs, sample forms, and more.

Sign up for a library card. Check out books at our libraries or through the mail. Log in and use HeinOnline and other databases.
