announcement regarding a
DCLRC open house.

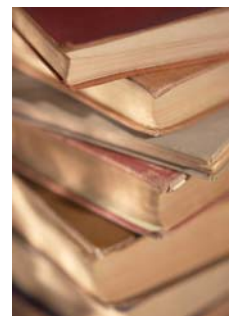

More pictures of the move, construction, and new library are on the DCLRC's website at: <http://wsll.state.wi.us/branch/dclrc/> under "News."

Used Book Sale

Looking for a little light reading? Make sure you visit our used book sale! Feel free to bring in your donations of lightly used paperbacks, hardcover, fiction or nonfiction. The proceeds will be used to purchase new equipment in the new library.

In addition, we remain a drop-off site for recreational reading materials for the inmates of the Dane County Jail.

Changes Regarding Temporary Restraining Orders and Injunctions

All TRO forms can now be found in the Probate Office (Room 1005) of the new courthouse. In addition, Restraining Order Clinics offer help with TRO forms and procedures in Room 1001 on Mondays 8-Noon and Fridays 1-4 pm.

This Month's New Forms/Booklets at DCLRC

Adoption Packet: $2.00

New and Updated Online Resources

- An updated and re-designed Probate Court page has debuted on the Dane County Clerk of Courts page. It includes links to unique Dane County Probate forms, FAQ's, and much more. Check it out at: <http://www.countyofdane.com/probate/>
- To promote better citizen awareness of local government actions, public legal notices are now available on a statewide web site hosted by member newspapers of the Wisconsin Newspaper Association. Notices will be accessible for 90 days after publication date. Some advanced features will be free until February 28, but require fee subscriptions beginning March 1. Access the notices by clicking on "Public Notice Web Site" on this page: <http://www.wnanews.com/>
- New in the Legislative Reference Bureau's "Governing Wisconsin" series is an overview on the three types of juries used in Wisconsin. You can link to this report along with others in the series by clicking on: <http://www.legis.state.wi.us/lrb/gw/>
