Staff News

Thanks to a generous grant from LLAW (Law Librarians Association of Wisconsin), Paula Seeger, Reference/Outreach Services Librarian, was able to attend the Second Annual Public Interest Law Seminar of the State Bar of Wisconsin on June 10. The seminar's topic was "Advocacy, Representation, and Referral of the Low-Income Client." You can find more information about this seminar here: <http://www.wisbar.org/sections/pil/event.html> .

- Second Friday of each month, starting at 9 a.m. and lasting 1-1.5 hours, meet in the library.
- Learn the history and locations of court offices in the City-County Building, Public Safety Building, and take a peek at the new courthouse construction (weather permitting)!
- Call the library to arrange a tour at other times or for special tours with over 10 people.

How You Can Support the Library

If the library offers services that benefit you, please tell your county board supervisor (find your supervisor here: <http://www.co.dane.wi.us/COBOARD/default.ASP>) or the county executive (email to: falk@co.dane.wi.us) to make sure that the library is funded for next year. The library's funding is only guaranteed through 2003. Please make sure library services are continued in 2004 and beyond by voicing your concern and support for the library. If you need more information, contact the library.
