Library News

The budget for the DCLRC is currently in negotiations. We urge you to contact your county board supervisor and tell him or her to support the contract for service with the State Law Library so the DCLRC may remain fully staffed and open to the public. You can find your supervisor here: <http://www.co.dane.wi.us/COBOARD/default.ASP>. Contact the DCLRC if you need more information.

Upcoming Library Events

Legal Research classes

- Tuesday December 9, 9-11 a.m. in Room 226 of the City-County Building (Dane County Courthouse). Call 266-6316 to reserve a space.
- Classes are designed for people with little or no legal background or understanding of legal concepts. Primary and secondary Wisconsin legal resources will be covered.

Know Your Neighbor Series

- Thursdays 12-1 p.m. in Courtroom 2B of the Dane County Courthouse on the following dates: Nov. 13, Dec. 11. The Nov. 13 session features speakers from the Family Court Commissioner's Office, Arraignment Court, and Crime Response Program. Bring your questions and your lunch—dessert is provided!
- Speakers present information on a variety of topics pertaining to the services and resources provided by the court and legal systems in Dane County. Call the library for more information, 266-6316. This series is co-sponsored by the Domestic Abuse Intervention Services—Legal Advocates.

Justice in Motion: Dane County Courthouse Walking Tours

- Second Friday of each month, 9-10 a.m., meets in the library.
- Learn the history and locations of court offices in the City-County Building, Public Safety Building, and take a peek at the new courthouse construction (weather permitting)!
- Call the library to arrange a tour at other times or for special tours with over 10 people.
