

115 OBJECTIONS OF COUNSEL

The lawyers for the parties have a duty to object to what they feel are improper questions. Do not draw any conclusion for either side if an objection was made to a question and the witness was not permitted to answer.

COMMENT

The instruction was approved in 2017. It was adapted from Wis JI-Civil 115.

Frion v. Craig, 274 Wis. 550, 557, 80 N.W.2d 808, 812 (1957); Johnson v. Cintas Corp. No. 2., 2015 WI App 14, 360 Wis.2d 350, 860 N.W.2d 515.