

1159 RIGHT OF WAY: PEDESTRIAN CONTROL SIGNAL: WALK SIGNAL

Question __ asks whether (name) failed to yield the right of way to (name).

The Wisconsin statutes define "right of way" as the privilege of the immediate use of the roadway.

The statutes further provide that, "A pedestrian facing a 'Walk' signal may proceed across the roadway in the direction of the signal and shall be given the right of way by the operators of all vehicles."

If you find that (pedestrian) faced a 'Walk' signal and was proceeding across the roadway in the direction of the signal, then it became the duty of (name) to yield the right of way to (pedestrian).

COMMENT

This instruction and comment were approved in 1977. The instruction was revised in 1992 and 2008. Editorial changes were made in 1992 to address gender references in the instruction.

The second and third paragraphs refer, respectively, to Wis. Stat. §§ 340.01(51) and 346.38(1).

The pedestrian also retains the right of way if he or she has partially completed his or her walk to the far curb or to a safety island when the light changes to "Wait" or "Don't Walk." Wis. Stat. § 346.38(2).
