New and Updated Online Resources

- There are new statewide divorce forms available for those representing themselves in court. The Wisconsin Court System is still rolling out these forms, so not all counties' basic guides and forms are currently available in an interactive format. Blank forms are available but if you don't see the form you need, check the Family Court forms list on the Clerk of Courts website or call DCLRC for more assistance.
- Along with this year's theme of National Library Week "Change Your World @ Your Library" is the theme of "Pioneering Change" for this year's Annual Meeting of the American Association of Law Libraries in St. Louis.
- April is National Fair Housing Month, observing the passage of the Federal Fair Housing Act. See the Office of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity website for more info.
- Looking for information on guardianship? Check out the Wisconsin Guardianship Support Center. Part of the Coalition of Wisconsin Aging Groups and staffed by attorneys, the Center features numerous resources and publications, including a free newsletter called "The Guardian."
- Keep an eye out for the April issue of WSLL@Your Service, the newsletter of the WI State Law Library. In it, you'll see details about their National Library Week activities.

Have you Blawg'd us lately?

Don't forget to check the DCLRC Blawg for all the local legal news, interviews, and research tips that are posted in between monthly newsletters! Visit us regularly or sign up for our notifier services when you're on the blawg site.
