- Speakers present information on a variety of topics pertaining to the services and resources provided by the court and legal systems in Dane County. Call the library for more information, 266-6316. This series is co-sponsored by the Domestic Abuse Intervention Services—Legal Advocates.

Justice in Motion: Dane County Courthouse Walking Tours

- Second Friday of each month, 9-10 a.m., meets in the library.
- Learn the history and locations of court offices in the City-County Building, Public Safety Building, and take a peek at the new courthouse construction (weather permitting)!
- Call the library to arrange a tour at other times or for special tours with over 10 people.

How You Can Support the Law Library

If the library offers services that benefit you, please tell your county board supervisor (find your supervisor here: <http://www.co.dane.wi.us/COBOARD/default.ASP>) or the county executive (email to: falk@co.dane.wi.us) to make sure that the library is funded for next year. The library's funding is only guaranteed through 2003. Please make sure library services are continued in 2004 and beyond by voicing your concern and support for the library. If you need more information, contact the library.
